About Fikile Moeti

Fikile Moeti, commonly known as "Fix" is a well-known South African Radio presenter; DJ and TV Personality turned Social Entrepreneur.

Fix, made MTV history when she became the first female VJ on 'MTV networks Africa'. The entrepreneurial beauty has graced our screens on the African continent since 2006 when she won a nationwide competition to become MTV base's first female VJ presenter. Since then the multi-talented entertainer also joined South Africa's No.1 Commercial radio station, 5FM - hosting the Forbes & Fix Show and becoming a household name on daytime radio.

Fix The Social Entrepreneur

Constantly striving to enhance herself as an Entrepreneur, Fix went back to school, studying Small Business/ Entrepreneurship at both Columbia College Chicago and New York University, after 6 years in the entertainment industry. Fix continued her studies by enrolling at the Gordon Institute of Business Science (GIBS) for the Social Entrepreneurship. Since graduating, she has partnered with GIBS to start a social enterprise called the Fix Scholarship, where she offers educational and leadership opportunities to female social innovators in Africa. Having funded her first two students directly from pocket, 10 years later the programme is a sustainable NPO in partnership with corporate stakeholders and over 30 alumni. In 2022, Fix Scholarship in partnership with Diketo Inclusive Education launched Affirmations For The African Child – an inclusive educational and mental health product to encourage healing for kids, families, classes, clinics and therapy centers.

Fix The DJ

Fix enjoys bringing people together ('Ubuntu' as we say in Xhosa culture) and found a way to do just that through her love for music. She bought her first vinyl at the age of 15 and fell in love with the DJ world later signing up with Soul Candi's DJ/Record Label. Having lived in the UK at an early age, and later living in the US in her early 20's, Fix's DJ sets are eclectic ranging from club/dance classics to soulful, groovy and deep house.
