

Taryn Louch

Actress | Voice Over Artist | MC | Radio Personality

Taryn Louch is a multi-faceted Actress, Entrepreneur, Entertainer, Philanthropist and Media Personality; and whilst she is a Creative at heart, she is also all about the business of Show Business; having amalgamated her talents to make her career thus far, a fortuitous and fulfilling journey.

Having graduated, Cum Laude, with an Honours Degree in Drama, and a BA in English, from The University of Pretoria, it was a taste of the Small Screen, which propelled her into the spotlight.

She debuted on Clive Morris' hit Television Series, Angel's Song, on DSTV, and is no stranger to the small screen. You can catch her on The Real Goboza's Fashion Police on SABC 1, displaying her love of fashion by unpacking the latest looks on the red carpet with her sharp wit and style.

Fuelled by passion, and her inherent love for all mediums, in the Palette of Performance; she has painted an illustrious vocation in Voice over Artistry and Jingles. Representing eminent brands. Her sultry sound can be heard on an International sphere, displaying her dynamism, when it comes to Accents, Languages and Dialects.

Taryn is able to make over the mundane into magic, modifying classic corporate into contemporary creative for the likes of Momentum, MMI, SAB, AB InBev, SA Reserve Bank, Veet, SA Banknote, Servest and Ster Kinekor, to name but a few. This is especially beneficial when it comes to emceeing an event or representing a brand, as she has an inherent understanding of the brand's offering and strategy, and is able to communicate key messaging to a captive audience.

Taryn believes in making a life by what she gives, aligning with organisations such as The Guide Dogs Association, Tape Aids for the Blind, Acres of Love and Unicef, to which she lends her talents to the greater good of humanity as well as animal welfare.

When she's not on stage or screen, Taryn animates the airwaves, having co-hosted Good Hope FM'S FullHouse, a weekend breakfast show for two years. Comprised of high-energy programming including interviews, inspired segment narration and playful, thought-provoking on-air banter, her passion for an array of subjects was explored on air, and the essence of the show encompassed what excites and inspires her, as well as her eclectic audience and guests.

Taryn's plans for 2018 are big, bold and bright, with her sights set on the stage, the screen and the airwaves, both locally and internationally.
