

Sibaphiwe 'Sibs' Matiyela

Newsreader | Radio Personality | Voice Artist | Media Personality

Sibs Matiyela is a newsreader by profession (The Thabooty Drive – 5FM, 15h00 to 18h00 weekdays) has a voice of velvet, complimented by a wide, versatile and unique range. With over a decade spent behind the mic, it's no wonder some call her the "One Take Wonder".

Over the past 11 years she has dedicated herself to constantly improving and honing her skills as a broadcaster. She is a fast learner, a team player but also works well on her own. She considers herself highly adaptable and easy to get along with in both the private and professional spaces she comes to occupy.

She is a consummate professional and inexorable talent behind the mic.

Performance Resume

Sibaphiwe 'Sibs' Matiyela

EDUCATION:

Rhodes University, Grahamstown

Bachelor of Social Sciences (Anthropology & Politics)

Bachelor of Social Sciences Honours (Politics and International Studies)

RADIO PRESENTING:

2016 – Current 5FM

2011 – 2016 GOOD HOPE FM

2011 – 2013 JINCOM PUBLISHING

2010 – 2011 MPOWER FM

News Reader, Contributor, Podcaster at 5FM

News Anchor, Contributor and Traffic Reporter at Good Hope FM

Script/Content Writer

Editor, News Reader, Traffic Reporter & Drive Time Show Co-Host

Hair : Dark

Height :

Eyes : Brown

Language : English & Xhosa