

Siphenathi Qeja

Actor | Voice Over Artist

Siphenathi Qeja is an actor who was born in Mthatha, Eastern Cape moving in his formative years to Kwa Zulu Natal. This is where he picked up his Zulu and perfected it before moving to Cape Town where he discovered his love for acting.

In 2011, he joined City Varsity where he trained in Professional Acting for Camera, theatre performance and TV Presenting, from there Siphenathi explored the world of theatre and performed at the prestigious National Arts Festival in Grahamstown.

Moving from theatre, to television and film, Siphenathi has played roles in the popular Ses Topla and his first feature role in, Ingoma (2018.) In between all this Siphenathi has also been featured in a couple of fantastic continental and global commercials.
