

Marcus Molemane

Actor

A proud Pedi boy, born and bred in Johannesburg, Marcus is an actor, creative & storyteller with a passion for the Arts.

His commitment to his artistry tracks back to his teen years when strutted his way through pageantry modelling.

In 2017, he made it to the top 12 for the Mzansi Insider presenter search which set him on a path of discovery and development as it pertains to his intrigue for screen and set work. He later explored his presenting skills again through hosting a comedy show called "Funnyness" for 16 months.

He has played around in different roles as an actor starring in various student short films to hone in on his performance capabilities. In 2019, one of the student films he got to perform in won a SAFTA for best short film.

After he obtained his Dramatic Arts certificate from Indigo View, he graced the screens with a supporting role in a feature film and went on to perform in various Shakesperean plays at The Joburg Theatre.

Currently making an appearance on local shows such a The Estate (SABC3) and Binnerlanders (ShowMax), he is driven to tell stories and becoming a multi-talented filmmaker through his production and casting director roles for upcoming short films which are written and directed by young artists like himself. He keeps a great nest of creatives around him to continue to grow and invest in his craft.
